

I use this for my safty in driving from home to school were the radio stations that actually provide this information are far and between. I use it in my home for the same reason that i have local brodcasting on my Direct TV Sat dish, I dont get reception. You have no reason to take this away from us